Remember starting tomorrow from noon until 7 PM, you can vote early for the candidates of your choice at City Hall or you can wait until November 6th at your scheduled polling place. We are lucky enough to have great candidates running for each of the 3 available group seats. We would be fortunate enough to have any of these fine candidates as commissioners. After CPNA's forum October 16th at the library where we asked specific questions about Collins Park and its future, I can honestly say any of these candidates would make worthy commissioners on our behalf.

The Mayoral race is really only between Matti and Simon. It is your personal choice as to who would be the best Mayor. Both are capable and both have shown their passion and dedication to our city.

Please exercise your right and vote for the candidates you want. That is the only way they can win. Lets get above the normal 10% pathetic voter turn out. Show you care. VOTE. Let your voice be heard.

On November 13th, 2007 in the commission chambers, the Historic Preservation Board will be hearing seven items on their agenda from our neighborhood starting at 9 AM. That shows you how much is currently going on in our historic neighborhood. Of these seven projects, only one, the James Hotel has come to our association to present their plan and ask for our support. I will go to this meeting to try and gain insight into the other plans and I suggest any of you interested in the development of our neighborhood to do the same.

Finally, Sleepless night, November 3rd. The attached email tells you everything you want to know about Sleepless night and the 4 zones where the entertainment will be. Collins Park is Zone 2. Click and see all the free events we will have. There won't be time to go to the other zones. Note there will be events at all of our 3 not for profit venues, Miami City Ballet, the Library, the Bass Museum and Rotunda. There will be events in the sand area of Collins Park by the boardwalk and there will be events at Talula's, the Shelborne and Club Shine. Enjoy the events at all of them and remember, they support our Neighborhood.

Thank you to the Mayor, Commissioners and staff for bringing us such an exciting event.
