Possum found in a trash can at our Garden

Roger Hammer is senior interpretive naturalist for Miami Dade Parks Department. He will discuss plants that attract birds and butterflies with the goal of inspiring homeowners to landscape their yards with wildlife in mind. He will also address dealing with iguana, possum and the wilder side of the animal kingdom.

A native Floridian, Hammer was born in Cocoa Beach and has lived in Homestead since 1969. He is author of 'Everglades Wildflowers' (2000), 'Florida Keys Wildflowers' (2002), and 'Exploring Everglades National Park and the Surrounding Area.' (2004).

Miami Beach Botanical Garden is owned by the City of Miami Beach and operated by the Miami Beach Garden Conservancy.
Open Tuesday to Sunday from 9AM to 5PM

2000 Convention Center Drive
